“Amazing Amanda”

Albany Medical Center launched “Amazing Amanda”.

On Thursday, March 18th at 2:00pm, Albany Medical Center hosted a book launch in their Genetics Clinic for the newly released book

“Amazing Amanda, My Journey Through Mito”

“Amazing Amanda is the touching account of a young (local) girl struggling with a chronic illness and her courage, determination and love of life every step of the Way.” Dr. Darius Adams, Assistant Professor, Clinical and Biochemical Geneticist, AMC.

Louis & Jackie Perrotta & Dr. Adams

Thank you to Lois Papp for allowing Jackie to come speak about Amanda’s book at the East Greenbush Library on June 2nd, 2010.

“AMAZING AMANDA: MY JOURNEY THROUGH MITO”

by Amanda Perrotta with Dave Hart ISBN
978-1449558994

Is available online at www.amandasjourney.org

When established authors present a new book, it is not uncommon for the back cover to be filled with glowing praise for their previous works.

“I have learned so much from this beautiful young lady...she showed me how to persevere even in tough times.”

K. Ghahkenschah – Amman, Jordan

In the case of “Amazing Amanda: My Journey Through Mito”, things are a little different. The final 29 pages of this new book are filled with “reviews” of a life well lived.

“Amanda...proved to be a “brave little soul”. She has helped people around the world and across the US.”

Kristie Grote – Maryland Heights, MO

Amanda Perrotta was a teenage girl from Rensselaer county whose courageous battle against a rare and life-robbing condition known as mitochondrial disease inspired all those who met her, and many who only knew of her from her online journal.

“Although we have never met, you touched my heart with your courage.”

The April and Wayne Bryant family – Hayden Lake, ID

Amanda’s online postings, as well as personal journals written in her last months reveal the humor, determination, and faith that guided her through an all too brief stay on this earth.

“Amanda was a unique and amazing spirit who had such maturity and wisdom for one so young...I loved her ability to laugh at herself and her circumstances, rather than crying and complaining.”

Shelley Chaves – Utah
